

FRESHMEN & SOPHOMORE ACTION PLAN

- What your child does outside the classroom is key to preparing for college.
- Your child's interpersonal & leadership skills as well as outside interests & goals are all important for college preparation.
- Hobbies, independent study and reading, extracurricular activities, and work experience will all help your child develop his or her skills, interests, and goals.

FRESHMEN & SOPHOMORES ACTION PLAN

- Independent reading & study will help to prepare for ACT and SAT exams.
- Colleges look at a student's application in a holistic manner, meaning they look for good GPA, strong ACT and/or SAT scores, as well as all and any outside experience a student can bring to their institution.
